CHAPTER 366.

AN ACT to amend subsection (3) and to create subsection (5) of section 195.02 of the statutes, relating to the regulation of common carriers of property by water.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (3) of section 195.02 of the statutes is amended to read: (195.02) (3) This chapter shall apply to the receiving, transmitting and delivering of messages by telegraph, and to all charges connected therewith, and to the transportation of passengers and property between points within this state, and to the receiving, switching, delivering, storing and handling of such property, and to all charges connected therewith, and shall apply to all common carriers engaged in the transportation of passengers or property wholly by rail or partly by rail and partly by water, and to all common carriers of property wholly by water which operate between fixed termini, but shall not apply to transportation of property by water under contract as a private carrier.

SECTION 2. A new subsection is added to section 195.02 of the statutes to read: (195.02) (5) "Railroad" also means and embraces common carriers of property by water which operate between fixed termini, and all of the duties required of, and penalties imposed upon, any railroad or any agent or officer thereof shall, in so far as the same are applicable, be required of, and imposed upon, such common carriers of property by water.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved July 7, 1933.
